

61 Monroe Avenue, a farm-house style residence with a unique 'stick-style' second story enclosed porch was built in 1861 and was the Brockport United Methodist Church parsonage (formerly the Second Methodist Episcopal Society of Brockport) for 125 years. It proudly occupies the northwest corner lot of Monroe Ave and Utica Street across from Hartwell Hall.