Community invited to Brockport CSD homecoming celebration

Floats, music and excitement will fill the campus of Brockport Central School District in honor of homecoming Sept. 23, 2016.

The fun kicks off at 5 p.m. with the second annual homecoming festival, featuring food trucks and a carnival hosted by Brockport Student Council. Organizers were overwhelmed with the success of the festival last year and hope to increase attendance even more this year. There will also be a silent auction.

The homecoming parade is scheduled to begin at 6 p.m. The parade will make its way from A.D. Oliver Middle School to the Dahn Walrath Stadium, where the varsity football game will commence against Greece Athena at 7:30 p.m.

Each high school class will decorate a float according to this year's theme: seasons. Freshman will represent spring, sophomores will depict summer, juniors will portray winter and seniors will illustrate fall. The winning class will be announced during half-time of the football game.

In addition to the bands, clubs and sports teams that will march in the parade, alumni and other community members will also participate.

"I'm really looking forward to being a part of Brockport's homecoming this year," said Brockport High School Principal Dr. Brian Weller. "There is such a sense of pride in the district and the community; celebrating with our students and families just enhances everything that is great about our schools. There is so much happening during the week and many opportunities for students to be involved. It is a terrific way for them to build memories that will last a lifetime. Go Blue Devils!"

If you would like to enter a float or become a parade sponsor, forms are posted on the high school web page at www.bcs1.org/homecoming. Registrations are due by Sept. 16.

Parking will be available throughout the village and on the district campus. Don't forget to show your school pride by wearing blue and white! If you have any questions, please contact Assistant Principal Mike Bourne at 585-637-1870 or Michael.bourne@bcs1.org.
